The abundant amount of catechin found in tea has supported the health of the Japanese people. Our treatments featuring Kyoto-Uji tea, which has a history of 800 years, make use of the tea not just for drinking but for bringing health to your skin and body with various techniques.

然

ZEN NATURE

A culture of medicinal herbs thrives in Hokkaido where plenty of herbs grow. Common in cold climates, this culture is a show of respect for nature and gives you a feel for the deep ancient traditions. The various plants that naturally grow in Hokkaido boost your body's functions and benefit your health and beauty.

香

KOH AROMA

For thousands of years, our forerunners have cleverly incorporated aromas into life scenes, such as for purification, meditation, and peace of mind. Aromas calm excitement, stabilize your mind, and guide you to your normal self. Herbs and incenses created by the vast land fulfill your mind and body.
